

Saving your form submission

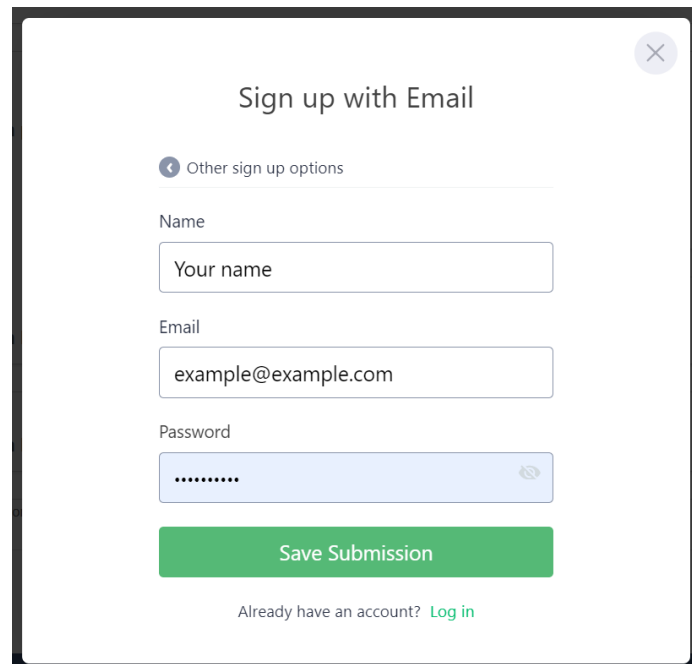

Click the Save button at the bottom of the screen.

Click 'Sign up with Email' if you do not already have an account with JotForm or click 'Log In' to use your existing account.

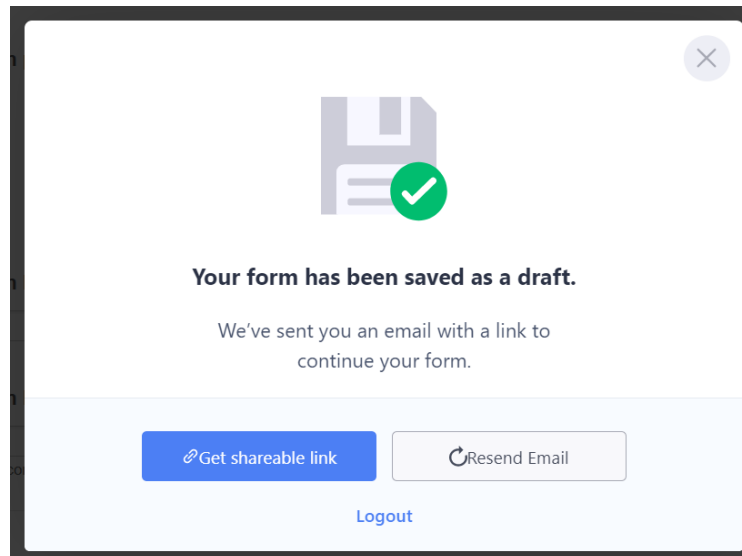

The screenshot shows a dialog box titled "Save your progress" from "General Practice Training Queensland". It features a close button in the top right corner. The main content includes a button with an envelope icon labeled "Sign up with Email". Below this button, there is a link "Already have an account? Log in" and a link "Skip Create an Account" at the bottom.

If creating a new account and you have clicked 'Sign up with Email', enter your details as required – Name, email address and create a password and click 'Save Submission'.

The screenshot shows a "Sign up with Email" form. It has a close button in the top right corner. Below the title, there is a back arrow and the text "Other sign up options". The form contains three input fields: "Name" with the placeholder "Your name", "Email" with the placeholder "example@example.com", and "Password" with a masked field of seven dots and a toggle icon. A green "Save Submission" button is positioned below the fields. At the bottom, there is a link "Already have an account? Log in".

Check you have received the email – if not click ‘Resend Email’ or ‘Get shareable link’.

Flag/Save your email to return to the page within your form submission to continue completing. (You may also receive an email requesting you to verify your email address to complete your account creation)

This may also be used to send the link to your supervisors to sign the declaration page of the application.
